SoloSports & EZZY Sails team up for Rig-n-Rip Instructional Clinic June 26- July 3, 2004

Punta San Carlos, Baja - March 30 2004: Kevin Trejo, owner of SoloSports, an all inclusive adventure sports holiday company featuring Punta San Carlos, Baja- today announced the first of their newly formatted instructional clinic series - the EZZY Rig-n-rip. This program features EZZY Sails owner and renowned innovative sail designer - David Ezzy and his son Graham – an up and coming professional windsurfer, turning heads all over the world. SoloSports has long offered instructional clinics featuring professional windsurfers and kiteboarders as part of their adventure holiday program however Kevin comments, “...this new re-engineered format featuring EZZY, is the most dynamic, value packed clinic, we’ve ever offered - It redefines the clinic paradigm.”

The Ezzy Rig-n-rip, features David providing an expert, comprehensive rigging course with Graham, offering instruction in the finer aspects of wavesailing techniques and strategy. All instruction will be hands on with an emphasis of a one on one format in and out of the water.

SoloSports has made their scheduled trip of June 26-July 3 an exclusive program for only those who wish to participate in the clinic.

As an extra bonus – SoloSports is also offering to all clinic participants, a brand new 2004 EZZY SE Wave Sail of their choice– a $500 value.

Prices for this exciting clinic are a base price of $1,900 for an all inclusive week in Punta San Carlos at the SoloSports Campo with EZZY Clinic or $2,200 for the week, the Ezzy Clinic and windsurfing equipment rental.
